

CLTLC'S KNEE-HIGH NATURALIST - SUMMER 2019 PROGRAM

Free and all are welcome! Join us from 10 - 11:30 am with your adult chaperone at the Clear Lake Yacht Club, unless noted below.

Come out and play!

Friday, July 5th – Soarin’ Hawk

Let’s kick off the 4th of July weekend with a program from Soarin’ Hawk Raptor Rehab. Bring your friends and family to Memorial Woods, near Point Park Drive, to see and learn about LIVE raptors including a hawk, an owl, and a kestrel.

Friday, July 12th – Build a Bat House

Local bat expert, David Syler, will share his knowledge about bats and the important impact they have on our everyday lives here in northeast Indiana. Families will construct a bat house to take home!

Friday, July 19th – Pollinator Playtime

Our friend Tara from the Soil and Water Conservation District will teach us about pollinators, how pollination works, and what plants pollinators need to survive. We will make a ‘pollinator ball’ and play a fun game!

Friday, July 26th – Drawing on the Edge of Clear Lake

Join us and local artists and owners of ClayWood Pottery, Anna and Tammeron, to learn and understand the art of drawing outside [Plein Air drawing]. We will draw on paper with vine charcoal and crayons.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT TRACY HUGHES (260) 495-4671 or CLTLC (260) 316-1397
